PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD
Rufus B. Merchant Dies Suddenly In Washington.
WAS SICK ONLY A FEW MINUTES
Body Brought To This City For Interment—
Funeral.

Rufus Bainbridge Merchant, formerly of this city, but for some years residing in the office of the Postoffice Department in Washington, died very suddenly at his boarding place in that city Friday night at 10:30 o'clock, from heart trouble and asthma.
The deceased had been in the best of health, but a few attacks of asthma, and on the evening of his death had eaten a hearty supper and was apparently in good spirits. After going up stairs to retire he was suddenly taken with a chill, and at once realising his condition called to his landlady, a Miss Odell, exclaiming: "I am dying." He asked that a doctor be summoned at once and Dr. John C. Simpson responded to the call in five minutes, but the end had already come when the physician reached the bedside of his patient. Mr. Merchant's death came as a terrible shock to his family, nearly all of whom reside in this city, and to his numerous friends both here and in Washington. He was in his office on Friday, and his wife had heard nothing of any illness or indisposition.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING

MERCER MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED ON A DAY WHEN HE AND CABINET CAN ATTEND.
FAMOUS MEN TO SPEAK—TO BE A GREAT OCCASION.

Mr. St. George R. Fitzhugh went to Washington Friday and by appointment had an interview with Judge Taft, Secretary of War, in reference to the unveiling of the Mercer monument in this city next month. Mr. Fitzhugh had a very satisfactory interview with the Secretary, who will bring up the subject at a meeting of the President's Cabinet, to be held next Friday, with a view of getting the President to indicate a day in November which will suit him to attend these ceremonies with his Cabinet. It is expected that the President and others will make addresses on the occasion. Senator John W. Daniel, Gov. A. J. Montague and Congressman W. A. Jones will also be on the programme, which, however, has not yet been arranged. Many Senators and Congressmen and Grand Army men, members of the D. A. R. and other Colonial organizations will also be present, as well as a great concourse of people from all over the United States.

KILLED BY CONSTABLE
Officer Hit Son While Firing at Father Resisting Arrest.

Robert Poindexter, twelve-year-old son of L. N. Poindexter, of near Green Springs Depot, Louisa County, was shot and killed Saturday by George Cheving, a constable of Louisa county.
The father of the boy, had been tried before Justice Madison, on a peace warrant and bound over in the sum of $100. Not being able to give proper security Mr. Poindexter was ordered to be put under arrest. He refused to do so and was taken to the jail. He was ordered to stop by the officers, Cheving and Grady, and when he refused to do so they fired upon him. His son was by his side in the buggy at the time and was shot in the head, killing him instantly.

MERCER MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED ON A DAY WHEN HE AND CABINET CAN ATTEND.
FAMOUS MEN TO SPEAK—TO BE A GREAT OCCASION.

Mr. St. George R. Fitzhugh went to Washington Friday and by appointment had an interview with Judge Taft, Secretary of War, in reference to the unveiling of the Mercer monument in this city next month. Mr. Fitzhugh had a very satisfactory interview with the Secretary, who will bring up the subject at a meeting of the President's Cabinet, to be held next Friday, with a view of getting the President to indicate a day in November which will suit him to attend these ceremonies with his Cabinet. It is expected that the President and others will make addresses on the occasion. Senator John W. Daniel, Gov. A. J. Montague and Congressman W. A. Jones will also be on the programme, which, however, has not yet been arranged. Many Senators and Congressmen and Grand Army men, members of the D. A. R. and other Colonial organizations will also be present, as well as a great concourse of people from all over the United States.

KILLED BY CONSTABLE
Officer Hit Son While Firing at Father Resisting Arrest.

Robert Poindexter, twelve-year-old son of L. N. Poindexter, of near Green Springs Depot, Louisa County, was shot and killed Saturday by George Cheving, a constable of Louisa county.
The father of the boy, had been tried before Justice Madison, on a peace warrant and bound over in the sum of $100. Not being able to give proper security Mr. Poindexter was ordered to be put under arrest. He refused to do so and was taken to the jail. He was ordered to stop by the officers, Cheving and Grady, and when he refused to do so they fired upon him. His son was by his side in the buggy at the time and was shot in the head, killing him instantly.

HAD BULLET IN WRIST
T. S. Henshaw, of Caroline, Says He Was Shot Here By Officer Hall.

T. S. Henshaw was fired here Saturday for resisting an officer Friday night. His wrist was bleeding and it was supposed he had cut it with a piece of glass. Sunday Dr. E. G. Hollaway made an examination and extracted a bullet.
Mr. Henshaw was at Bowling Green Monday, and says Officer W. R. Hall, of this city, shot him and he will make a claim for damages. He says he has a witness to the shooting.

TRAGEDY IN CAROLINE
Child Killed in Play.

Mrs. Lizzie Satterwhite, who lives near Gohansville, Caroline county, went visiting Sunday, leaving her four children at home. During play the little daughter, Sammie, aged 7 years, was shot and instantly killed by her brother Jimmie, aged 10 years. When the mother returned she found the dead body of the child and the little ones gathered around. It is not known how it occurred, as the children are too small to give an intelligent account of the affair.
